

The Anglican Church of Luxembourg

Lumen Magazine, Editor's Report for 2016-2017

- The magazine continues to come out four times a year. Past issues can be consulted on the website at anglican.lu.
- During the year our long-standing printers Unijep closed down, and we switched to OnlinePrinters.com, slightly reducing flexibility but enabling us to print 300 full-colour copies for the same price (about 1 euro per copy).
- We plan to continue mailing to all people on the Contact List during the Interregnum.
- Contributions in the form of:
  1. text (ideally in 12 pt Times Roman, in Word or OpenOffice) and
  2. photos (jpeg files), free of copyright and with the consent of people depicted, are always welcome; for theme and deadline, please see pew-sheets.
- Ideas, particularly for more visuals and for the young people's page, are welcome.
- Portrait-format cover photos with a seasonal theme are welcome as jpeg files.
- Volunteer proof-readers welcome.
- E-mail mag.editor@anglican.lu.
