

The Anglican Church of Luxembourg Lumen Magazine Editor's AGM Report 2014 - 2015

The new team (Edward Seymour, Claudia & Patrick Granger) took over editing of the magazine a year ago, and has so far produced four issues:

- Summer & Autumn 2014 under the temporary name Den Anglikanesche Magazin;
- Winter & Spring 2015 under the new name decided in October by the Communication Committee, Lumen.

Content is intentionally linked to the seasons of the church and calendar year, while continuing to record past church events and announce those about to take place.

Contributions are welcome, in electronic form and should be sent to mag.editor@anglican.lu.

The Summer issue is due to be published in early June; the deadline for contributions is Sunday 17 May.
