

Charity Arts Festival

Variety Concert

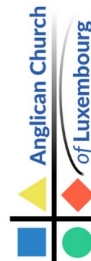

Saturday, 5 February 2022, 20:00

Konvikt Centre, 5 ave Marie-Thérèse, L-2132 Luxembourg

Music & sketches from groups including
The Art of Music & Pirate Productions

Free entry, Covid Check 2G+ in aid of the charities the Anglican Church supports

For more details / to donate scan the QR code below or visit www.anglican.lu

Arts Festival 2022 Variety Concert programme Saturday 5 February, 8 pm

Organist Robert Kania

Johann Sebastian Bach: In dir ist Freude BWV 615
Toccata et Fuga D -minor BWV 565

The Art of Music

Music from three centuries

John and Ann Overstall

Poetry reading

A little bit of Latin rhythm

- Libertango and Roma, versions for voice sung by Katy Clay and accompanied by Lisa Dishman on guitar
- Canarios on the double. A medley of two 'canarios' pieces played on classical guitar by Lisa

INTERVAL

Organist Jean Olinger

Carillon de Westminster, Louis Vierne

Dinner for One - drama sketch by Valerie Scott and Steve Wilkie from Pirate Productions

Lisa Dishman and Merrin Bydder

Original songs with guitar and ukulele accompaniment

Anglican Church Choir - Organist: Robin Alder; Director: Ovidiu Dragan

Four anthems:

- A Gaelic Blessing, by John Rutter (b. 1945),
- Brother James's Air, by James Bain (1860-1925),
- Cantique de Jean Racine, by Gabriel Fauré (1845-1924), and
- Nunc Dimittis, by George Dyson (1883-1964).

Please give generously by cash, Digicash or bank transfer to support our charities:

Friendship Luxembourg

Supports the poor and vulnerable in flood-affected regions of Bangladesh.

Greyton Genadendal Education Trust – South Africa

Changing people's lives by assisting disadvantaged rural learners with secondary and tertiary education.

Naledi – South Africa

Helps poor and needy children in the townships of South Africa with the aim of breaking the circle of poverty, criminality and AIDS.