

The Anglican Book Club Season 2022 – 2023

The Anglican Book Club (“ABC”) of Luxembourg meets 5-6 times a year to discuss chosen books and related themes. Our books generally have a Christian, philosophical and/or environmental dimension - and can include works of fiction. We aim for a broad balance between male and female authors. Meetings generally take place on Thursday evenings, usually via Zoom (which has proven to work well). Please do join us!

Dates, Time + Locations	Books	Remarks
2022
Thursday SEPTEMBER 29  8 pm (20h) Online / ZOOM	Saying YES to Life by Ruth Valerio	For Creationtide: Saying YES to Life provides a theological perspective, based on the Genesis account of Creation.
Wednesday OCTOBER 26 (Time tbc) Centre Jean 23 KIRCHBERG	God, Who on Earth are You? by Steve McCarthy	An opportunity to meet and hear this Luxembourg-based author at an event hosted by the LSRS at Centre Jean 23.
Thursday DECEMBER 15  8pm (20h) Online / ZOOM	The Power of Reconciliation by Justin Welby	Drawing on personal experience, Archbishop Welby makes the case for learning to “disagree well”.
2023
Thursday FEBRUARY 16  8pm (20h) Online / ZOOM	Monsignor Quixote by Graham Greene	In this entertaining novel from 1982, a Spanish priest journeys across Spain during the Franco years. His adventures echo those of the anti-hero from the famous novel by Miguel Cervantes.
Thursday APRIL 20  8pm (20h) Online / ZOOM	Here and Now: Living in the Spirit by Henri J.M. Nouwen	Distilled wisdom for living in the present moment (Christian mindfulness) from a modern spiritual writer.
Thursday JUNE 15  8pm (20h) Online / ZOOM	At the Existentialist Café by Sarah Bakewell	A playful exploration of Existentialism – ideas that have significantly influenced modern societies.